

Make Sense of Civics

Legislative Branch

Pennsylvania's General Assembly consists of two bodies, the Senate and the House of Representatives. The main task of these two bodies is to make laws.

Videos in this section include:

- How a Bill Becomes Law
- Tour of the PA State Capitol Building

Executive Branch

The Governor serves as the Executive of Pennsylvania. He or she is responsible for approving or vetoing laws passed by the General Assembly, subject to a two-thirds override.

Videos in this section include:

- Gov. Ed Rendell (2003-2011)
- Gov. Mark Schweiker (2001-2003)
- Tour of PA Governor's Residence

Judicial Branch

Pennsylvania's judicial branch is responsible for interpreting the state Constitution, and deciding cases.

Videos in this section include:

- PA Supreme Court Chief Justice Thomas Saylor
- Judge Marjorie O. Rendell, U.S. Court of Appeals

Free video gallery available at pcntv.com

Pennsylvania
Cable &
Telecommunications
Foundation